

2013 Pennant

A huge thank you to the ladies who put themselves out to assist our Club throughout the Pennant season. It's a huge commitment for a number of weeks for a lot of players. East Geelong's club spirit lives on!

Division 6

Division 6 did struggle a little this season, but came through with the goods when it was needed most, to stave off relegation. A great effort when it really counted ladies! You can still hold your heads high.

Rnd 1: A loss for our team, with all losses being close, which seems to be the tone set for the season.

Rnd 2: The season's hardest chore - hosting duties. Not a bad shot was made though.

Rnd 3: We'd rather forget the score this week! Even through smoke filled eyes, losses were again very close, even one on the 19th.

Rnd 4: This week was also a loss, with the one win for the team. Can't repeat it often enough of just how close matches are.

Rnd 5: A very close losing result this week. We had our second trip down the 19th this week, and this match was a win!

Rnd 6: This was the week we needed. A great win of 3/2. Two close losses here again, which could have made it a clean sweep.

Rnd 7: The final round left no room for complacency. Valiant efforts with not one match finishing earlier than the 17th! Again! The sole winner also finishing on the 17th! The emergencies doing a stellar performance also finishing on the 18th! Well done ladies!
